Overview: CHAMP is Australasia's most experienced private capital manager. Their newly refurbished office space in Sydney combines timeless quality joinery and wall panelling to cater for a range of working styles. With stakeholder collaboration being a core focus for the company, a welcoming front of house features an impressive reception desk, client tea point and multiple meeting rooms. The superior amalgamation of fine materials and quality craftsmanship blend luxurious furniture and joinery throughout the space. Aspen Interiors worked closely with the team at Unispace to manufacture architectural joinery to the design intent and create an aesthetically pleasing and welcoming office space.
